'Outlook in the Taiwan Strait'

Dr Mark Harrison (UTAS)

'The complex issue of China and Taiwan continues to shape Australia's strategic, political, and security position.'

Dr Mark Harrison is Senior Lecturer in Chinese Studies in the School of Social Sciences in the College of Arts, Law and Education at UTAS. He is also an Expert Associate of the National Security College and a Founding Fellow of the Australian Centre on China in the World at the Australian National University. He is the author of a range of publications on Taiwanese and Chinese politics, culture, and society. He writes a regular series on Taiwan and China for ASPI's The Strategist and is frequently cited in the national and international news media on Taiwan and Australia-Taiwan and Australia-China relations.

Dr Harrison has recently returned from Taiwan, and we are again fortunate to have him as a guest presenter to talk about this complex security issue facing Australia and the world.

The Presentation will start at 7pm

Drinks and nibbles provided from 6.30pm
